

Invertigo Dance Theatre

Step into a world of lush dance, dynamic theatre, math, sex, fairy tales, humor and death.

"Dip the apple in the brew / Let the sleeping death seep through" – mathematical genius and World War II codebreaker Alan Turing was known to mutter these lines from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs over and over as he walked the hallways of Bletchley Park, where he and his fellow World War II code-breakers raced against the clock to decipher the Nazi's "unbreakable" code.

Next weekend is the premiere of our newest work, Formulae & Fairy Tales, inspired by the life of Alan Turing. We have been building up to this show for over 2 years and can't wait to finally share it with the Los Angeles community. Join us next weekend at The Broad Stage in Santa Monica as we bring Turing's story to life through choreography, original music composed by Julia Kent, Eric Mason, and Toby Karlin, and visual effects by NightLight Labs.

Indiegogo Continued...

Indiegogo is allowing us to continue to raise funds through their platform, so we've set a goal to raise an additional $2200 for a total of $17,300 by September 21st. Your support helps us continue to develop Formulae & Fairy Tales for our first national tour next year. If you didn't get a chance to donate during the campaign, you can still show your support by contributing during this flexible funding period!
