Wishing You Happy Holidays!

Happy holidays from all of us at Invertigo Dance Theatre. We are grateful to end the decade with such an excellent year and wish you many blessings as we enter 2020.

Meet our New Board Member: Pam Yoon

Pam appreciates all types of performing arts and is excited to join the board. Originally from Chicago, she feels lucky to have been in California (Los Angeles by way of San Francisco) for two decades and counting.

Having worked in product management for large and small software companies for almost 20 years, Pam is a survivor of Silicon Valley and both Dotcom eras.

She is active in the tech community and organizes product management events in L.A. to meet and learn from other product managers.

Pam has a B.A. from Smith College in Massachusetts and a Master of Arts Management in Arts, Entertainment and Media from Columbia College Chicago, with a focus on performing arts. In her spare time, she enjoys going to the symphony, opera, comedy shows, spending time with friends and getting lost exploring L.A.

Website Rebranding!

We're getting a new website! We have been working on rebranding our website with pH Collective (read more about them below). Stay tuned for updates on our new website which will be launching in the new year!

pH Collective is a socially conscious creative agency with a mission to better our world by doing good communications for good brands. Founded by Holly Peters and Jian Huang, we work with small businesses, individuals, and community organizations to craft messages that resonate to an ever-shifting audience base. We collaborate, we think creatively, and we just also happen to have a ton of fun doing our job.

About Holly

Holly has guided, created, and managed more than 100 projects as Creative Director for both print and online media, helping clients to reimagine their communication practice for the digital economy. A graduate of California State University, Northridge in Graphic Design, Holly brings her skills to help a diverse array of clients and backgrounds ranging from the publishing industry to community organizations.

About Jian

Jian has over a decade of communication and marketing experience working with nonprofits, governments, and creative individuals. A graduate of the University of Southern California in Art and Communications, Jian helps clients tell meaningful stories that resonate in an ever-shifting media landscape.
