About How We Emerge dance film
The Kitchen Table Project's latest film, premiered at Invertigo's Fall Soiree on October 21, and features an intergenerational cast of artists, including: Cody Brunelle-Potter, Haylee Nichele, Diana Lynn Wallace, Chelsea Roquero, Jeannette Bland, and Spencer Jensen. The film honors the memories of eight community members who were lost during the pandemic.

Alongside Karlin, who directs and choreographs, the film was developed with Glyn Gray (Director of Photography), Chris Stokes (Lighting Designer), Rebecca Baillie Stumme (Production Manager), and Invertigo Dance Theatre staff support.

The arts are a way to share stories, reach across the table and say "I was affected too." It integrates loss and love of community in a creative way. As Karlin says, "The kitchen table is full of memories and symbolism, intercultural exchange and intergenerational connections...there are so many stories to tell."

About Culver City High School Academy of Visual and Performing Arts Fall Concert, "Feelings, Exposed"

One Body Dance Company invites you to an evening of faculty and student choreography exploring the range of human emotion. In addition to these works, we are also proud to feature some extended learning opportunities our students experienced with professional dancers and musicians.

Since last Spring, Invertigo Dance Theatre has provided a series of workshops for our students where they experienced how professionals approach choreography, find inspiration and create, edit, and refine their final works. We are honored that Invertigo will be presenting their dance film How We Emerge (part of the Kitchen Table Project) at our concert and you will delight in seeing some student choreography based on that idea.

This Fall, we welcomed Monti Ellison, choreographer of our African Dance and Drumming piece, and drummers Megashia Jackson and Malik Sow. These incredible musicians kept the students inspired with their amazing skills and rhythms! Monti's choreography along with the songs and drumming will lift you up as the show's finale!
